Hug of life: Carmen Green with Justin Crook, who saved her life after her heart stopped on the way to work

'Still alive thanks to a stranger'

BY SARAH LEE
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A MOTHER-OF-FOUR who had a cardiac arrest on her way to work says she owes her life to the St John Ambulance volunteer who was passing by and stopped to give her CPR.

Carmen Green, 42, who lives in Brooklands, was being driven to work by her husband Andrew, 38, in September last year when an undiagnosed medical condition caused her heart to stop.

She said: "We'd had some family bereavement and initially I thought my extreme tiredness was down to the grief.

"But I actually had a benign tumour on my parathyroid [in the neck] which was causing hypo-calcaemia – where the body draws too much calcium from your bones into the blood.

"My husband was driving me to work on the morning of September 8 when I flopped sideways onto him and started gasping for air.

"Pulling into the bus stop, Andrew got me out of the car and called emergency services when a stranger came over to help."

That passerby was Justin Crook, 37, who is a trained first aider with the St John Ambulance unit in Olney.

Justin, who has been involved with the charity since he was 10 and works as a health and safety manager in construction, said: "I was driving to work when I noticed a car was pulled up on to the kerb and a woman was on the floor.

"I immediately went over to help, assessed Carmen and started CPR before the paramedics arrived."

Carmen said: "Two months later I woke up in hospital after being in a medically induced coma.

"Thankfully the tumour was benign but the hypocalcaemia increased the amount of calcium in my blood – stopping my heart.

"On a busy weekday morning, with people rushing to work, it's rare anyone stops to help someone on the side of the road.

"But without Justin's decision to help after realising that something wasn't quite right, I wouldn't be here today.

"Thanks to him my mum hasn't lost another daughter (my sister died when I was younger), my husband still has a wife and my four children still have their mum."

Following the drama Justin is urging more people to learn first aid.

He added: "It is a useful skill for anyone. You never know when you'll need it. For example, I once had to perform CPR on my 14-month-old son.

"Or you might stumble across someone in need on the street. The more people with training, the more lives can be saved."

How does the council spend parking cash?

MILTON Keynes Council raked in more than £9million in parking charges in 2014/15.

But it spent just £508,000 on creating or improving car parks, despite concerns from city centre businesses that there are not enough places for their staff to park.

And now MK NEWS can reveal exactly how the council spent the parking income – which is ringfenced – after we submitted a Freedom of Information request to the authority.

In 2014/15 it spent the £9.1million surplus on the following:

- £219,000 on highway inspections, highway improvement design and project management
- £103,000 on street lighting
- £508,000 on off-street car parks
- £665,000 on the passenger transport team, publicity, studies and project development, promotion, minibus driving testing and bus infrastructure
- £4.329million on concessionary fares and £2.228million on bus subsidies
- £1.034million on funding of highway investment programmes

One Santander worker, who did not wish to be named, said: "Spending £508,000 on car parks seems to be a small amount considering all the trouble there is parking around here. How else is it going to be solved?"

Search for Stephen goes on

BY SARAH LEE
editor@mk-news.co.uk

POLICE continue to search for missing Stephen Keogh after an investigation last week did not uncover any new evidence.

Officers searched land near Milton Keynes Central railway station, as well as the Granby and Netherfield areas, from Tuesday as part of enquiries to locate the 38-year-old.

Mr Keogh has been missing from Broadlands, Netherfield, since Monday, May 11, however, there was a reported sighting of him in Netherfield on May 22.

On a video released by Thames Valley Police during the investigation, his brother John issued a plea for his return.

He said: "It has been seven weeks since Stephen went missing and the family are really worried.

"I would like to ask anyone who has information that can help the family and the police find my brother to get in touch.

"Stephen, if you have seen this, please get in contact with myself or mum – or anybody."

Anyone with any information which may assist the investigation should call Thames Valley Police on 101.

MK man found guilty of child rape charges

FOLLOWING a nine-week trial at the Old Bailey in London, a man from Milton Keynes has been found guilty of child sex offences alongside five other men.

Asif Hussain, 32, of Rossal Place, Hodge Lea, pictured below, was found guilty of three counts of rape on Friday. The offences relate to two victims, aged under 16 at the time they took place in Aylesbury between January 2006 and December 2012.

Investigating officer, Supt Gill Wootton, said: "I would like to thank the victims for their bravery in coming forward and having the immense courage to attend court.

"It is because of their courage six men have been found guilty of serious sexual offences against children and potential victims are safe from them.

"We will continue to support the two victims in this case and any other victims of sexual exploitation who contact us.

"I also want to take this opportunity to ask anyone who may have been a victim of crime to come forward. This case shows we will listen and do everything in our power to bring the offenders to justice."

Sentencing is due to take place on September 7.

Help needed to find lost Gerald

BY PHILIP MCELENEY
editor@mk-news.co.uk

WE all remember our favourite childhood toy, whether it be a teddy bear, Barbie doll or, in one little girl's case, Gerald the Giraffe.

But imagine the heartbreak three-year-old Ruby Andrews felt when Gerald got lost on Saturday when she was on a shopping trip with her family.

They had eaten at Pret a Manger in the centre:mk.

Ruby's mum Samara Andrews, 36, said: "It's our daughter's favourite teddy, she's had him since birth and takes him everywhere."

The family did not notice Gerald was missing until they had left to go home to Henlow, Bedfordshire.

The mum-of-two added: "We noticed Gerald was missing on the drive home so we went back to look for him. We looked everywhere – the beach, the café, I was expecting him to turn up on a ledge somewhere but unfortunately he didn't."

Mrs Andrews, her husband Chris and her sister-in-law Jenny have all taken to social media in an effort to find the lost giraffe.

To help reunite Ruby and Gerald visit www.onemk.co.uk and use #FindGerald on Twitter.

It's one rule for us, but another for the council

I WAS surprised to learn in your article about Milton Keynes Council's work to Bradwell Windmill (MK NEWS, July 22) that the authority's spin doctor believes that 'these minor alterations are in keeping with the historic character of the building'.

A moment's reflection would show that if it were historically accurate for the mill to have a roof which leaks like a sieve than it would not have survived these past 210 years.

I wonder if their spin doctor would care to confirm whether the council's actions is the result of its officials responsible for the windmill being incompetent (they did not know that what they were doing) or dishonest (they knew but didn't care)? Or, indeed, both (didn't know; didn't care).

The council considers it 'historically accurate' to have weatherboarding of the wrong type of wood; lacking soakers or flashings to protect the vulnerable corner joints; inadequate overlap of the boards; numerous splits and knots in the wood; mating surfaces and end-grain not pre-painted to prevent their rotting and all covered in a modern solvent-based paint, which will now be harbouring moisture behind its surface and so accelerating the decay.

I am sure this lax definition of 'historically accurate' will surprise owners of other listed buildings in Milton Keynes being prosecuted by the council for their unauthorised alterations.

One law for Milton Keynes Council, another for its citizens?

We refuse to roll over

MIKE Saunders is sadly mistaken if he thinks that Wolverton residents are going to roll over and accept the latest town centre redevelopment plans ('Living in a fantasy', Letters, MK NEWS, July 15).

Having participated for years in the Wolverton Vision project and the neighbourhood plan consultations, which is going to referendum this week, we have a right to expect that the redevelopment of our town centre should be done to comply fully with our plan.

Our vision is for a thriving district centre with shops and businesses, not the proposed densely populated 100 unit housing estate with eight shops thrown in.

It may be falling down but we don't want the Agora replaced at any cost as it is a building which is dedicated to local commerce, full of shops and offices and providing facilities to local residents.

The Agora is a destination which is well past its sell by date and is blocking access to businesses on the town square, but it supports many local businesses who appear to be being abandoned with the proposed plans.

The parking demands for the proposed 100 flats is going to swamp the town centre leaving little parking for shoppers and existing residents in this cramped location.

Mike's assertion that opposition to the plans are limited to a 'small cabal in Future Wolverton' should take a long hard look at the names and addresses of more than 200 residents' signatures opposing the plans that were presented to the Milton Keynes Council's development control committee (DCC) and the various petitions from all the local businesses.

They are all saying the plans are not right for the future of Wolverton.

If the Government's localism plans are to have any meaning then the DCC should take notice of us all and reject the plans, making way for developers who share our vision and give Wolverton the town centre is has worked tirelessly to achieve.

Stephen Bryant

Plans didn't check out

I AM glad to read that residents have expressed delight at the opening of a new branch of Aldi in the city ('Residents welcome news of second Aldi, MK NEWS, July 15).

It will be the second store in the city and will open in November in Westbrook.

We in Wolverton had hoped that the second Aldi store would have been here, opening last Easter.

There was a big petition from residents in favour of it. However, there was an active campaign against it happening by Future Wolverton and the development control committee (DCC) at Milton Keynes Council decided by a narrow margin to say no.

Future Wolverton's current campaign is to get the DCC to say no to the existing Agora plans.

Kites left me on a high

THE recent publication of Andy Handley's photo of a Newton Longville red kite (MK NEWS, July 1) brought back memories of when I commuted two hours daily each way to my corporate social responsibility job at Thames Water in Reading.

A job, which by pure coincidence, saw me project manage multi-million pound environmental projects with the RSPB.

My journey took me through Christmas Common and along the M40 and on every one of these journeys I was captivated by the beauty of the red kite, a bird of prey I had never seen despite in my youth being a keen young ornithologist.

The red kites on the very edge of Milton Keynes really are a pleasure to behold and Andy's photograph captures the mood of their tireless flight perfectly.

Alderman Paul Bartlett

What a refreshing view

I READ your article about Peter Marland and his Q&A about why residents need to welcome change, which was quite refreshing to hear (onemk.co.uk, July 17).

I particularly like his quote 'we need to be able to adapt, keep what is best about MK but not become a living museum'.

This is so very true and the people of Milton Keynes need to stand up for growth and change. Yes we need to protect our heritage but this is 2015 not the 1960s. We need to stop giving the likes of Urban Eden and Xplain the time of day as they will oppose anything that isn't make out of mud and straw.

We are fortunate that companies want to invest in Milton Keynes as they see the potential in our new city. The Theatre District, the gallery and intu Milton Keynes shopping centre have grand plans and this is an exciting time for MK.

The council needs to be brave enough to accept that ideas that were thought to have been a good idea 30 years ago are completely impractical today. The world has changed and evolved and Milton Keynes needs to do so too.

School holiday arson fears

RESIDENTS have expressed concerns the school summer holidays may cause an increase in arson attacks in the city.

Buckinghamshire Fire and Rescue Service has released a statement urging people to take extra care during the hot weather after attending 20 fires in the space of two days earlier this month.

More recently, firefighters were called to a suspected arson attack at the Blue Lagoon Nature Reserve, when trees and bushes were set on fire. Two hours later a dozen 999 calls were made reporting a fire in Monkston Park.

Commenting on our social media pages, Steve Cook said: "With the enjoyable evenings comes those who wish to cause mindless damage."

Hayley Evans added: "People should appreciate what we have and have some understanding of the dangers they pose to themselves and others."

A spokesman from the fire service added: "We don't like to demonise any sections of our communities, including children, but it's fair to say with the current spell of good weather, and more people out and about with time on their hands, there's a risk the number of outdoor fires will increase. People who witness fire-setting should call 999 if an emergency response is needed, and 101 with information about people causing the problems."

Dog is 'lucky to be alive' after attack

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

A DOG owner wants to warn others after a 'horrific' dog attack that was like 'a horror movie'.

Four-year-old Dudley, a small maltese and shih tzu-cross, owned by Natasha Piper, was attacked by a grey-hound owned by Carol Buck in Lodge Gate, Great Linford.

Mrs Buck told MK NEWS she 'hasn't slept properly since the attack' and that her and Dudley have been left 'traumatised'.

Vets Now Emergency in Walnut Tree said Dudley was 'lucky to be alive' after a large amount of tissue was ripped from his body.

Natasha, 25, said: "It was absolutely horrific, it was like something out of a horror movie. Dudley was on his lead, when Mrs Buck with her three dogs came towards us.

Horrific incident: Dudley was attacked by a greyhound

"I moved to one side and she moved to the other. The dogs' leads snapped and they went straight across me and went for Dudley.

"I tried to prize the jaws off of him, but they had a firm grip and all I retrieved was his little harness.

"Eventually he was freed and I quickly scooped him up.

"Ten days on he was surviving, but he had to visit the vets daily."

A dog on dog attack is not a criminal offence and Natasha has to foot the vet bill that has already exceeded more than £2,000.

Mrs Buck said it was an accident and only one of her dogs attacked Dudley.

She added: "I haven't had a proper night's sleep since.

"My white greyhound was on the lead but suddenly it snapped and he ran across.

"There is no way this will happen again, he will always have two leads and wear a muzzle.

"I just want to say how sorry I am."

Long wait for commuters

COMMUTERS in Milton Keynes have to play a waiting game on trains from London Euston, with some peak time evening services being late up to 90 per cent of the time in the last four weeks.

There has been a total of nearly three-and-a-half hours of delays on trains from Euston to MK between 5pm and 7pm in the last seven days alone.

Most services running between 5pm and 7pm from the capital have been late more than half the time in the past four weeks, with some services being an average of more than five minutes late. In the past three months, just five out of the 22 services stopping at MK, which depart from Euston between 5pm and 7pm, have been on time for more than half of their journeys.

Some trains, such as the 17.10 and 17.43 services, have been 10 or more minutes late 25 per cent of the time in the last four weeks.

A London Midland spokesman said: "The main issues recently have been infrastructural issues. That's no comfort to our passengers and we encourage anyone delayed by 30 minutes or more to claim compensation."

Owner saw thief take car

A BUSINESS owner watched in horror as a thief drove off in his car and escaped at high speed.

Anthony Taylor, 57, of Taylors Dairy in Dawson Road, Mount Farm, had his dark blue Audi S3 stolen from the car park of his workplace last Wednesday at about 1.50pm.

The thief stole the car keys from Mr Taylor's office, before reversing out at high speed and driving off in the direction of the Auckland Roundabout in Bletchley.

Speaking to MK NEWS, Mr Taylor said: "I was working in the cold room when someone came in through my office window. They obviously got in and took my car keys from my drawer – the problem is I am always in and out of the office.

"I saw my car being driven in reverse at top speed, and I thought about challenging him but I decided against it – it was like a bat out of hell."

"I could not see the driver clearly because of the tinted windows, but I'm positive it was a man.

"The car was parked round the back, right out of the way. I think it was targeted by a professional.

"I reported it straight away to the police but I have not heard anything since. I'm not hopeful of it being found."

The registration of Mr Taylor's stolen Audi is J9 ADT.

If you have any information on the theft, or on the location of the car, contact

MILTON Keynes is in the grips of a school places shortage. Here MK NEWS looks at some of the ways the crisis is being eased

First look around: Councillors Pete Marland and Norman Miles, centre, had a tour of Brooklands

Tour was put on the timetable

A £160MILLION programme building seven new schools and expanding 12 more is beginning to take shape.

Pete Marland, leader of Milton Keynes Council, and Norman Miles, cabinet member for schools, were given a tour of some of the new facilities last Tuesday.

The first stop on the tour was of the second campus of Brooklands Farm Primary School, which is set to open to 90 children in September and will also have a 39-place nursery.

They also toured Oakgrove School, where a £4.7million extension will create extra classrooms and also went round Shenley Brook End and New Bradwell schools.

Cllr Marland said: "I'm delighted that this ambitious capital development programme is progressing well.

"We want to ensure that all children can access a school place and I am proud that our team are working to make that a reality."

School move to 'work out best'

BY JAMES AVERILL

james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

A SECOND building for an overcrowded school is set to be moved to a different site – and parents have welcomed the move.

MK NEWS first reported in 2014 how parents were unable to get their children into Oxley Park Academy unless they lived within 320 metres of the school entrance.

After parents handed in a petition, Milton Keynes Council announced it was backing a second site to be built in Shenley Wood.

But a planning application for that site has now been scrapped and instead plans have been earmarked to move the second site closer to the affected parents in Westbury Farm.

Ward councillor Edith Bald said: "There were health and safety concerns about the previous site as Nifty Lifts had a number of lorries passing through each day nearby.

"It is essentially being moved one grid square down, but it's better for parents and I'm absolutely delighted things are progressing."

Parent Liz Morris, from neighbouring Westcroft, currently has one child at the school, one more on the waiting list and will be applying for her fourth child to have a place in 2016.

She said: "The site is much closer to the parents and while it may delay the opening of the school for a bit, we think it will be worth the wait.

"The help of MK NEWS highlighting this issue is not underestimated by us."

Too early to get in festive spirit?

BY CHRIS KNIGHT
editor@mk-news.co.uk

CUSTOMERS at a restaurant were greeted by a Christmas tree – complete with baubles and tinsel – nearly five months early.

Shocked customers were greeted by the festive decoration at the Harvester in Loughton and encouraged to book early for their Christmas lunch.

Lee Smith, 35, said he was 'absolutely appalled' to see the festive decorations this early in the year. He tweeted a photo of the tree to Get In The Sea, a comedy page, and it was met with a furious response.

Lee said: "I was absolutely appalled at seeing the tree up, there was also a table with baubles and lights and the tree fully decorated.

"I knew from the second I saw that tree I had to get a photo of it and blow the whistle, so I posted it on Facebook. I instantly had multiple comments of horror."

Harvester admitted staff at the branch may have entered into the festive spirit a little early.

A spokesman said: "Although we realise not everyone wants to think about preparations quite yet some guests do like to get their Christmas booking plans underway, even in July."

The tree went up on July 19 and was decorated a day later, but was taken down on July 22. Harvester said it was intended to be there temporarily and was not removed because of the publicity.

WHAT YOU'RE SAYING ONLINE

Dave Plummer: Christmas Eve, down on Boxing Day.

Jason Brucass: It's meant to be 12 days of Christmas, not five months of Christmas.

Giselle White: Yikes, I don't want to be reminded that Christmas is coming. I'd rather enjoy the summer while it's here.

Tracey Preston: Decorations go up December 1 and come down on January 6.

Kelly Eagles: Christmas is forced on us far too early.

You could make a difference to a child or young person's life...

www.milton-keynes.gov.uk/fostering tel: 01908 253206

Milton Keynes Council is keen to recruit people who can offer a safe and loving home for a child/young person in care. We are especially seeking carers for teenagers. As a Milton Keynes Council foster carer you will be provided with a generous allowance plus support and training.

Our foster carers come from all walks of life and across a diverse community. They offer children and young people a nurturing, caring home environment where they can begin to thrive and reach their full potential.

It's a challenging role; one which will always ask for a great deal of input and support from you. However in providing a home to a child/young person who is unable to live with their family for a period of time you will be creating a wonderful experience for everyone involved.

MILTON KEYNES COUNCIL

IS YOUR FINAL SALARY PENSION SCHEME BAD FOR YOUR WEALTH?

It has long been a commonly held view that so called final salary pension schemes are sacrosanct. They are generally regarded as gold-plated and secure. However, since the new Pensions Freedom rules were introduced by the government on 6 April the whole ball game has changed significantly.

One of the many pensions changes introduced was the ability to not only leave your money purchase pension to your spouse but also to other members of your family such as children and grandchildren. This means that if you want your pension to survive you and benefit your family you can now do so because your pension need not die with you.

The problem with final salary pensions is that like annuities they die with you. Pretty much the best you can hope for is that your final salary pension scheme will provide a 50% widow's/widower's pension on your death. On the second of your deaths it dies with you. This is particularly pertinent if it is a large pension.

We have a male client who is in his fifties with a wife and children. He has a company final salary pension scheme worth c.£900K.

Tony Byrne
Financial Planning Director
Wealth And Tax Management

In the last year he has been diagnosed with cancer and although he has recently been given the all clear his life expectancy will probably be much reduced. He is quite wealthy and has other large pensions so retirement income is going to be plentiful in any case.

We did a cashflow forecast comparing the income from his final salary scheme with that from a personal pension based on the pension transfer value offered by his previous employer's pension scheme. We assumed investment growth of just 5% p.a. in a new personal pension. Staggeringly for all time periods up to and way past retirement his and his widow's personal pension income was no worse than the income from his final salary pension scheme would have been. More importantly the value of his personal pension fund did not fall much at all in value! This means that his family in this situation would have been substantially better off to the tune of nearly £900K! He decided to transfer his pension preferring the "bird in the hand" approach.

Please do bear in mind this is just one isolated case. Every client's situation is different. Professional advice is essential.

Giant Hogweeds prompt warning

BY CHRIS KNIGHT
editor@mk-news.co.uk

GARDENERS and nature lovers should be wary after toxic Giant Hogweed plants were spotted in the city.

The Parks Trust identified the plants in Broughton Brook and Emerson Valley (by the V3) and are working to remove them.

Rob Riekie, landscape and operations director with The Parks Trust, said: "We have been cutting back and spraying these resilient plants in a bid to destroy them. The area they are occupying is decreasing."

Despite looking attractive,

Giant Hogweed poses a danger to people. Its sap contains toxic chemicals that can cause blistering. It can also cause sunburn and scarring, as it prevents skin from protecting itself from the sun.

If someone comes into contact with the sap, doctors advise the affected area is immediately washed with soap and water and then covered.

Mr Riekie added: "Anyone who comes across the plant in any of our parks should not to touch it and report it to our landscape team by calling 01908 233600, or emailing landscape@theparkstrust.com."

If you find Giant Hogweed elsewhere, call Milton Keynes Council on 01908 252353, Monday to Friday during office hours, or ring 01908 226699 outside those hours.

If attempting to physically remove the plant at home, the Royal Horticultural Society recommends the use of protective clothing to cover all parts of the body.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Billy Harley feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Bedford, Milton Keynes & Leighton Buzzard areas and Billy is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Billy a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

War diary goes home to Ypres

BY CHRIS KNIGHT
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A FIRST World War diary, found at a home in Stony Stratford, has been published online and donated to a museum in Ypres, Belgium.

David Marks, 77, from Potterspury, found the diary of Private Leonard Lewis Kilcoin while clearing out the home of a deceased relative, Ann Marks, in Calverton Road.

After reading it, Mr Marks decided to publish the diary online.

He said: "I got to know the man – I felt quite moved reading it. He went through this suffering and difficulty and it had not been seen by anybody.

"I wanted to have his voice heard. I created a website and published each entry 100 years to the day to mark the centenary anniversary of the First World War. I missed one day and had an angry message from a reader in Australia!"

Find: David Marks outside the property where he found Private Leonard Lewis Kilcoin's war diary, left

Born in 1884 in Wellington, India, Private Kilcoin served in the first battalion of the Irish Guards. He fought in the Boer War and survived the Battle of Mons, but died in March 1919 when he pricked his thumb on a rose and suffered blood poisoning. After publishing the entries online, Mr Marks decided to donate the diary to the In Flanders Fields Museum.

He added: "Private Kilcoin described the sight of the Ypres in one of his entries and said none of the men will ever forget the sight of the burning town. I thought the diary should be kept in the place he lost so many of his friends.

"It was shown in a special exhibition at the museum to mark the 100th anniversary of the destruction of the town."

Tina's court cases have cost us £8k

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

THE owner of a bogus business school who failed to attend multiple court cases has cost the taxpayer £8,000 – despite living just a five minute walk from court.

Tina Beloveth Powerful, of Ascot House, North Third Street, failed to attend MK Magistrates' Court on Friday despite being aware of the time and date of the hearing.

She was convicted at the same court on June 19, for 'misleading' students by claiming her school offered accredited degrees.

Her Everest School of Transformational Leadership had also falsely boasted of outstanding facilities and offering accredited masters degrees, PhDs and LLBs.

Powerful, pictured, was arrested and bailed on July 17, hours after she failed to attend a second sentencing. Residents said she was arrested after she called police when MK NEWS reporters called at her home.

But her latest absence means the 47-year-old will stay in custody when she is next arrested by police. No new date for sentencing has been set.

A novel theme for first book

Darkhaven: Anna Smith has published her first novel

AN AUTHOR from Walnut Tree has had her debut novel published.

Anna Smith's Darkhaven – a cross between fantasy and a murder mystery – was published by Harper Voyager earlier this month.

She said: "I wanted to write something fast-paced and engaging for the readers. I definitely enjoyed writing it – it was fun to take murder mystery elements and mix it with fantasy."

Fewer cheap homes in overdue scheme

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

A STALLED housing development is set to begin once more – but with 148 fewer affordable homes.

The Newton Leys scheme by Taylor Wimpey was first given outline planning permission in 2005, on the basis that 30 per cent of the 1,650 homes (495) would be affordable.

But the number of cheaper properties will be reduced so the scheme can get back on track, after it was hit by problems due to the recession.

Just 762 of the homes have been built, with 888 yet to be constructed. Work is also due to start on a new school.

But even a £16.5million loan by the Government in October 2014, through the Local Infrastructure Fund (LIF) scheme, has not been enough to maintain the level of affordable homes.

Now, just 21 per cent of the total number of houses (347) will by affordable homes – classed as rent, shared ownership or low cost market properties.

The lower figure has been recommended for approval by planning officers at MK Council and the application is due to be discussed at 7pm tomorrow at the Civic Offices.

Cllr Mohammed Khan, a ward councillor for Bletchley on Milton Keynes Council, told MK NEWS the figure was 'disappointing'.

He said: "We should always strive to get 35 per cent for every development. It's the only way we can meet our affordable requirements."

Calls for market to improve town

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

A DEDICATED market area would improve the number of people visiting Bletchley, according to one councillor.

Mohammed Khan, who represents the town on Milton Keynes Council, believes more needs to be done to attract footfall and businesses to the centre due to increased competition around the area.

He would like to see a market similar to one that was in Elizabeth Square more than 30 years ago.

"We would like to see a greater footfall to help local traders," he said.

Dominic Muscat, a director of Bucks Biz which has premises in Barton Road in nearby Water Eaton, said: "I think a place for market traders would help."

However, Barbara Sullivan, regeneration officer at Bletchley and Fenny Stratford Town Council, said there are plans for a new road through Elizabeth Square to improve access to the town and added that the authority's Facebook and Twitter pages promoted Bletchley.

Market force: Representatives from Bletchley's council and firms

WHAT YOU'VE BEEN SAYING ABOUT BLETCHLEY

Mechelle Thompson: How about getting shops that might actually be of use to people? There are too many cafes, pound shops bookies and, I hate to say, charity shops.
Jacqui Galvin: Free parking, a proper market, a Wetherspoons, and less charity and pound shops just to start with.
Paul Ollier: Free parking for shoppers. It's too easy to pop into the main superstores as you don't have to worry about finding a space or paying for it.
Neil Williams: I'm not sure to be honest. It might be time to accept that Bletchley town centre has to all intents and purposes moved a couple of miles west to the stadium development?
Steven Wight: Remove the restrictive Sunday opening hours.

Leading the blind: MK NEWS reporter Chris Knight and Marie Jenkins.
Below: Marie and Councillor Mick Legg

A guide to

BY CHRIS KNIGHT
editor@mk-news.co.uk

I'M NOT usually the sort of person who volunteers to have a go at new things.

But when I heard Councillor Mick Legg, cabinet member for public realm at Milton Keynes Council, was taking part in a blind walk on behalf of the Royal National Institute of Blind People (RNIB), I was oddly eager to have a go.

I met with Cllr Legg and representatives from the RNIB in Queensway, Bletchley, on a sunny Saturday morning, without an ounce of trepidation.

I knew high streets like the one in Bletchley could represent something of an obstacle course at times.

But I had never thought of them as particularly dangerous spots.

How wrong I was.

After watching Cllr Legg successfully negotiate the pitfalls of the high street, perils of high streets

Marie Jenkins, regional campaigns officer for the RNIB, handed me the SimSpecs, designed to replicate partial blindness.

I could still see straight ahead, but I had lost all of my peripheral vision.

Marie then took my arm and began to slowly guide me back along Queensway – towards the Brunel Shopping Centre.

She kept pointing out obstacles I just didn't see and weaving me in and out of foot traffic.

Bicycle racks, A-boards, bollards and lampposts just popped up right in front of me. I was moving my head much more than usual to compensate, but could hear cars and people passing which I just could not see.

But the worst was to come when it came to crossing the roads. At a busy junction, I literally could not judge when was safe to cross.

I was completely dependent on Marie – I have no idea how the partially blind manage when it comes to crossing roads.

It was at the end of the journey when I was finally able to appreciate the impact of the SimSpecs. The restoration of my peripheral vision left me feeling dizzy for several minutes.

Cllr Legg had joined in as part of the RNIB's Street Accessibility Fortnight of Action.

After the walk, he said: "It was a really enlightening experience. You are constantly moving your head and seeing things much, much later.

"The first thing we should do is hold a forum for interested user groups to have an open discussion and see what we can do to improve the safety of highways like these."

After my brief partially blind experience, I couldn't agree more.

Energy scheme may help raise key funds

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

Bright idea: Jermaine Campbell, project leader for an energy scheme that may make thousands of pounds for the community

A COMMUNITY energy project could help raise vital funds for one of the city's most deprived areas.

Woughton Community Council, which covers areas including Netherfield and Beanhill, has been given a £19,260 grant from the Government's Urban Community Energy Fund to conduct a feasibility study into the scheme.

In what is believed to be the first project of its kind in Milton Keynes, the scheme could help generate £100,000 a year, which would be put back into the local community.

A public meeting is due to be held at the council in Farthing Grove, Netherfield, today at 7pm where residents can find out more.

A consultation will also be held with businesses to see how they can contribute to the scheme.

Jermaine Campbell, who is leading the project for the council, said: "This is not meant to be prescriptive and we want to engage with residents to introduce the idea and get them to come forward with how they want to see it implemented."

Seven locations, including Langland Community and Moorland schools and Woughton Leisure Centre, would trial the project but the long-term aim is for residents to run the scheme.

Solar panels could be installed at the schools and leisure centre, while ideas such as better ways to use heating and lighting will also be discussed.

"We are facing a global energy crisis and we as a country have obligations to reduce our carbon footprint," Jermaine added.

"The aim is for this to be run by the community for the benefit of the community."

Council workers are now looking to set up a board of directors to run the project.

Showing true Grist: Farley cycled to Paris' Eiffel Tower

Dad rides Far-ley in aid of hospital

A DAD has cycled 330 miles to raise money to help sick children.

Farley Grist, 54, of Old Farm Park raised more than £1,700 for The Children's Hospital in Sheffield after cycling from London to Paris in just four days. Inspired by his five-year-old daughter Willow – who is regularly treated at the hospital – Farley said: "The challenge turned out to be very enjoyable!"

A healthy future for shut surgery

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

WILLEN Village Surgery will reopen after a deal was struck with a nearby GP.

Newport Pagnell Medical Centre has confirmed it will open Willen as a 'satellite' extension to its practice.

The surgery closed suddenly in March 2013 when Dr Agnelo Lobo resigned with just one day's notice.

Plans for Newport Pagnell to save the surgery were exclusively revealed by this newspaper in March 2014 – and contracts have now finally been exchanged for company Newcrest Willen Ltd to buy the building, which will then be rented by the medical centre.

A statement issued by the medical centre said: "We are aware of the high public demand for this facility to be reopened as a GP practice.

"The building will need some refurbishment work before we are in a position to open the doors to the public."

Although no opening date has yet been confirmed, Broughton ward councillor Sam Crooks hopes the surgery will be open in time for winter jabs in November.

He added: "It's been a hugely difficult and long battle, but this is fantastic news."

More than 4,000 patients were assigned to different surgeries when it closed, including 84-year-old Alan Darnell, who said: "It's difficult to get to the other surgery in a wheelchair, so I'm delighted Willen is opening."

Bringing Sex and

BY SARAH LEE
editor@mk-news.co.uk

SEX and The City in Milton Keynes? What's that about?

Well, a local meeting group using the title are not a fan club of the TV show, but exist to encourage Milton Keynes women to meet their girl-friends for dinner, drinks, fun or just putting the world to rights – like Carrie, Samantha, Miranda and Charlotte.

It encourages all women who enjoy to gossip and giggle to join the group to find like-minded individuals for friendship, networking or just to widen their social circle.

The group, which operates on the community website www.meetup.com, currently has more than 500 members and hosts nights out on the third Friday of every month.

Past meet-ups have seen the group visit Giraffe, Café Rouge and Las Iguanas for dinner and drinks or La Tasca for salsa dancing.

Founder Nikki Stok said: "The group has been running for more than seven years now and it has been a great success.

"I set up the group when I moved to Milton Keynes in 2008. Having no friends or family here, I searched for a meet-up group for interesting, professional and like-minded women, but couldn't find anything suitable.

"So I thought to myself – if you can't find one, make one. And just like that – Milton Keynes' Sex and The City was born."

Debra Hardy who helps organise the group said: "Despite the group's name, there's nothing salacious involved – it's just a girl's night out – dinner, a few drinks and 'life, the universe and everything' conversation."

From looking at the group's review page, it is clear that the meet-ups have been a hit with women all over Milton Keynes.

One group member said: "I would say any women out there should come along to one of the meet-ups. So far every woman who has attended has been absolutely lovely. Each with their different stories and experiences to share."

The next meet-up will take place on Friday, August 21 at 8pm. The location is yet to be confirmed.

If you would like to join the group visit www.meetup.com/sex-n-the-city/

Town's parks flying the flag for quality

BY JAMES AVERILL

james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

TWO parks have been given prestigious awards marking them out as among the best in the UK.

Chepstow Park and Leon Recreation Ground, both in Bletchley, are among a record-breaking 1,582 parks and green spaces that received a prestigious Green Flag Award on Friday – the mark of a quality park or green space.

The award recognises and rewards the best parks and green spaces across the country.

Chepstow Park is maintained by West Bletchley Council, while Leon is run by Milton Keynes Council.

Simon Rose, the parks and environment officer for West Bletchley Council, said of Chepstow Park: "We all need places for relaxation, exercise and recreation and quality parks and green space provide this."

Cllr Liz Gifford, Milton Keynes Council's cabinet member responsible for community services, said: "We are absolutely delighted to receive a Green Flag Award for Leon Recreation Ground.

"It is credit to all the hard work that goes into maintaining the park to such a high standard."

Flying high: Chepstow Park has picked up a Green Flag Award

Resident Jenny Howells tweeted @OneMKNews to say: "I love this. It's such a great place to go."

The heart of every kitchen is the oven, where heat works its magic, turning raw ingredients into wonderful food and aromas. Today's built in ovens combine innovative technology with energy efficiency and sleek, stylish design.

The multi-function oven combines all the benefits of hot air cooking with additional functions such as conventional cooking, grilling, hot air grilling, top/bottom heat only and defrosting. Hot air cooking is ideal for all types of food allowing you to cook sweet and savoury food at the same time without flavours and smells intermingling. Advanced cooking technology ensures precise heat circulation and exact temperature control. The result is perfect cooking in every corner, on any shelf, in any position.

Combination compact ovens are now available with the option of steam with hot air cooking. 100% steam cooking retains moisture and nutrients in the food, this is ideal for cooking rice, fish, vegetables and fruit, making a tastier and a healthier meal. 50% steam and 50% hot air helps conserve the texture and humidity of the food. This is ideal for casseroles, soufflés and reheating dishes. Reheating using steam puts life back into food using moisture, making food taste just as delicious the second time round. Whilst 25% steam and 75% hot air locks in the moisture and browns the outside for irresistible flavour creating juicy succulent meat and crunchy vegetables cooked to perfection.

Induction hob cooking is recognised as being one of the quickest, safest and most efficient methods of cooking available. Automatic pan recognition ensures that only pans heat up. When a pan with a ferrous or magnetic metal base is placed on the hob, the coil situated below the ceramic glass surface uses an electromagnetic field to create heat. Almost instantly heating the pan, with only the base of the pan heated, the cooking surface stays cool. Induction hobs are capable of bringing a pan to the boil faster than a comparable gas or conventional electric hob.

With all this power and technology at your fingertips, cooking will become quick and simple so you can sit back and enjoy delicious food, one of the finest things in life.

Bedrooms to die for

Following on in the Shabby Chic theme bedrooms lend themselves particularly well to this design with its pastel tones and elaborate furniture appliqués depicting floral swags & garlands, cherubs and hearts.

You can treat yourself to as many pieces as your budget allows or have a go yourself at recreating the paint effects and rejuvenating old tired furniture. If unsure of your skills practice on any unwanted items or pick up something from a re-cycling or salvage yard.

Paint can be sanded back to give the aged look and is available in all the vintage tones.

Lime waxing is a great way to get the look if you don't want to add colour and can be built up to create the depth of tone required but keeping the wood grain visible.

Luxurious linens, throws & cushions complement the look and if your budget allows why not add a chandelier to add a touch of luxury.

If floral Shabby Chic is not your style then try Beach Cottage Chic or French Country, whatever you decide have fun creating your look.

Trio paying tribute to iconic 'mod' band

IF YOU'RE a fan of The Jam, head along to the Craufurd Arms on Saturday.

Tribute band The Jam Movement are set to rock the venue from 7.30pm – and it will be the closest you can get to the real thing.

Paul Weller recently said there 'isn't enough money in the world' to convince him to do a reunion, so getting your live fix pretty much depends on tribute bands.

And The Jam Movement is one of the best, featuring Anton Goldapples, Andre Modest and Richard Reid.

Frontman Anton states that seeing his first show – of course it was The Jam – at the Rainbow Theatre in 1979 set him on the path to musicianship.

The band's 'Bruce Foxton' Andre was inspired by the fret work of the famous bassist and drummer Richard can't stay away from the mod group, having had a stint in a previous tribute band The Jamm, who have since dissolved.

The Jam Movement will be hoping to recreate the glory days by performing hits such as Strange Town, Town Called Malice, Going Underground and Start.

Tickets cost £8 each and can be bought from www.thecraufurdarms.com

The event is open only to those aged 14 or over.

THE hugely popular Ben & Holly's Little Kingdom theatre production takes to the road – and is stopping at Milton Keynes Theatre.

To celebrate, we've teamed up with the theatre to give away two family tickets to the show on August 15 – and a meet and greet with the cast!

The Little Kingdom – where everyone is very, very small – is home to Princess Holly and her best friend Ben Elf and Gaston the Ladybird.

In this exciting new musical adventure, Ben and Holly have fun and games helping Gaston clean up his messy cave; they go on a trip to The Big World with tooth-fairy Nanny Plum and still have time to plan a surprise for King Elf's birthday party, complete with an unplanned jelly flood. Packed full of games, songs and laughter, this is an enchanting and magical visit to the Little Kingdom, live on stage for the first time. To be in with a chance of winning answer the following question:

What is the name of the tooth fairy in Ben & Holly's Little Kingdom?

A) Nanny Plum B) Nanny Peach C) Nanny Apple

AMY Converse, from Vets4Pets in Bletchley, is MK LIFE's animal expert. This month she talks to us about how to keep hedgehogs safe

HEDGEHOGS are lovely little creatures and an animal native to Britain.

They are known for rolling into a ball when threatened but can actually run up to six miles per hour and can also eat up to 40 slugs a night.

We need to protect these precious creatures by being cautious, especially in our gardens.

Very simple things can be done to protect hedgehogs, including ensuring there is access into the garden by leaving a small gap in the fence, checking areas before cutting grass or strimming, looking through the compost heap before digging a fork in, moving rubbish piles to a new site before burning them and reducing, or even stopping, using pesticides or poisons.

If you see a hedgehog that is injured or unwell you can contact your veterinary surgery or numerous rescue organisations for advice or help.

familyday

FAMILIES are invited to join in the free fun at the MK Playday in Campbell Park.

The fun day, on Wednesday, August 5, from 11am-4pm will include games and activities, with Britain's Got Talent's Disney singing Misstasia announced as the event's opening act.

The performance on the main stage will begin at 11am and there will also be a chance to meet the girls.

MK Playday is organised and run by MK Play Association, The Parks Trust, MK Dons SET and MK Council with support from MK Community Foundation.

What Your Agent Has To Say

Take the risk out of which agent you choose

IT'S quite a conundrum choosing which agent to sell your property for you. After all your home is generally your most important asset, after your family of course!

Perceived wisdom suggests that you get more than one valuation, after all we were all taught to mark three points on a sheet of paper in order to draw a straight line. So do get more than one opinion but bear in mind that you will get as many opinions as you ask for and be wary of an agent who quotes you the highest possible price off the lowest fee. Surely a route to disaster.

For those of you old enough to remember Red Adair, the famous American oil well firefighter, you could do well to heed his words. "If you think it's expensive to hire a professional to do the job, just wait until you hire an amateur!"

For a truly professional service from an agent that you can trust with your most valuable asset call Lane & Holmes on 01234 327744. Visit www.laneandholmes.co.uk for more information and to view our promotional video.

Honda Confirms Pricing For All-New Jazz

Honda UK has announced that the all-new Honda Jazz subcompact hatchback will be priced from £13,495 on-the-road for the entry-level S model, rising to £17,425 for the flagship EX Navi CVT model. Competitive PCP options for the versatile and sophisticated new Honda are expected to start from £149 per month (5.9% APR with a 30% deposit), bringing exceptional affordability to the subcompact hatchback segment.

The all-new Jazz builds on the strong reputation of its highly successful predecessors. The newcomer retains the classic Jazz silhouette yet exhibits distinctive contemporary styling, including a powerful new face and strong character lines.

A new platform increases overall length by 95 mm, but highly efficient packaging means that the latest Jazz is proportionally even bigger on the inside than the previous generation model. Occupants will benefit from both boot space (354 litres with the rear seats up and 897 litres with the rear seats down) and passenger space that are unrivalled in the class. The all-new Jazz offers exceptional versatility, retaining Honda's highly practical Magic Seat system which allows for numerous cargo configurations and a maximum interior loading length of an impressive 2,480 mm.

Specifications are generous across the range, with base-grade S models fitted as standard with convenience features such as air conditioning, cruise control with speed limiter and dusk sensing auto lights. Every grade comes with Honda's City-Brake Active to help avoid low-speed accidents.

The mid-grade SE model, priced from £14,595, adds front and rear parking sensors, electrically adjustable and heated door mirrors and 15" alloy wheels. Honda's Driver Assistance Safety Pack is also included, giving owners the extra reassurance of five advanced active safety aids.

Those opting for the top-grade EX model (from £15,715) will appreciate smart entry and start, automatic climate control and six-speaker audio upgrade. Styling is enhanced with 16-inch alloy wheels and front fog lamps.

Customers opting for the SE or EX models will also benefit from the Honda Connect in-car infotainment system as standard. This Android-based system features an app-based 'pinch, swipe and tap' interface accessed on a seven-inch touchscreen in the centre of the dash.

Honda Connect comes with pre-installed apps, with others available for download from the Honda App Centre. These give rapid access to internet-based services such as web browsing, real-time traffic information, news and weather, social media, and internet music stations. Integrated Garmin navigation is available as an option on SE and EX models.

Designed and engineered to achieve a five-star Euro NCAP rating, every all-new Jazz sold in Europe will be equipped with Honda's City-Brake Active system as standard. SE and EX models will be fitted with Honda's Driver Assistance Safety Pack, which uses radar sensors, plus forward- and rear-facing cameras. This comprehensive suite of active safety technologies includes Forward Collision Warning, Traffic Sign Recognition, Intelligent Speed Limiter, Lane Departure Warning and High-beam Support System.

A new, highly efficient, highly responsive 1.3 litre i-VTEC petrol engine from Honda's Earth Dreams Technology series delivers 102 PS at 6,000 rpm. This power unit delivers the sprightly driving performance of the previous Jazz's 1.4 litre engine, together with fuel economy equivalent to its 1.2 litre.

Combined with either a six-speed manual gearbox or a newly developed CVT, emissions are as low as 106 g/km of CO2. The CVT's driveability is given a more natural 'multi-gear' feel through the use of new control software exclusive to Europe which simulates seven speeds and provides optimised gear change mapping. The all-new Jazz will go on sale in the UK in September.

Hyundai i20

SMALL WONDER

The MK2 model Hyundai i20 is bigger, slicker and a good deal better equipped to take the fight to the top contenders in the supermini sector. Its predecessor won sales by playing the value card. This time round, Hyundai's counting on quality carrying it through.

Under the bonnet, Hyundai's main efforts have been centred upon developing a three cylinder petrol turbo engine to rival the Ford EcoBoost and Vauxhall 1.0 turbo direct inection units. The powerplant they've come up with is badged '1.0 T-GDI' and is a very competitive proposition, offering 120PS - significantly more power than its rivals, yet there's similar efficiency. Unfortunately, this unit is pitched up towards the top of the range and i20 buyers traditionally are more interested in lower-order models. That means they'll probably be looking at the petrol 1.2-litre unit we tried, which is offered with either 75 or 84PS. There's also a 1.4-litre 100PS petrol options. These 'Kappa' petrol powerplants are fine for shopping trips, bt if you plan to venture further afield, then you'll probably want a little more pulling power - in which case, you probably need to opt for one of the diesels. There are two - a 75PS 1.1-litre unit and a 90PS 1.4-litre variant. Better to go for the 1.4: its lower-powered stablemate offers distinctly leisurely progress, the rest to sixty two sprint occupying 16s.

Of all the cars in its line-up, the i20 has traditionally been Hyundai's most conservatively-styled thing. Early design renderings for this second generation car looked a good deal more adventurous, but in the metal, it's been very toned down. It's still a handsome piece of penmanship though, carried out under the auspices of ex-Audi design boss Peter Schreyer. The front end looks cleaner and wider, while the area around the C-pillar and rear wheel arch has elements of Golf Mk5 about it, which is no bad thing.

Go for the three-door Coupe modela and you get a more rakish appearance. The grille is different as well, with a reverse hexagonal shape inset into a more aggressive front bumper assembly. It's those bulging rear wheel arches that are the key design flourish though.

The interior is really smart, with the design maturity of a much bigger car. Interior space has improved, with combined front and rear legroom of 1892mm, a class-leading figure and comparable with the space of some cars from the class above. The wheelbase is 45mm longer and additional legroom was created in the front by raising the height of the dashboard and moving the glovebox and surrounding components forward. Cargo capacity has also been enhanced, making the vehicle one of the most accommodating in the segment. The boot volume in the five-door variant has increased by from 295-litres to a class-leading 326-litres. The rear bench folds flat, meaning capacity is boosted to 1042-litres with the rear seats folded. Go for the three-door Coupe and you get 326-litres.

One statistic tells you a lot about this i20: 88% of existing owners buy another, a figure almost double that of typical rivals in this segment. Evidently then, people like it once they've tried it. You can see why.

Certainly it's hard to think of a supermini that would be easier to live with than this one. Few others are more practical or better built and though pricing's crept up a little, this car remains affordable to buy. To these sensible virtues, this second generation model adds a sleeker shape, a more willing set of driving dynamics and most of the hi-tech features you'd now expect from a modern contender in this class.

Of course, it isn't perfect. Not all the mainstream engines are as efficient as they could be, a point emphasised by some trendier, more avant garde rivals, some of which are better to drive. Overall though, if you can find a car in this class that makes more sense when you add together all the really important attributes that families look for in a supermini in this segment, then you'll be doing very well.

Johnson joins Lightning

BY TRACEY RICHARDSON
editor@mk-news.co.uk

New signing: Luc Johnson is on the roster for next season

Pic by Nicky Pearce

THE penultimate roster announcement for MK Lightning reveals local forward Luc Johnson will pull on the team's colours in the upcoming season.

Johnson, 18, began his hockey career with the junior organisation, the MK Storm. He enjoyed an outstanding 2011-12 season, finding the back of the net no fewer than 40 times in just 19 games for Storm U16s.

Johnson was the club's top goals and points scorer by a significant margin, adding 43 assists to the points scored.

Last season, he captained the GB U18 team, scoring six points from five games and helping the team to bronze medals along with another recent MKL signing, Ed Knaggs.

Now, Johnson has signed for MKL and looks to take his career to the next level - playing regular EPL hockey under the watchful eye of Pete Russell.

Johnson will be on a two-way contract with MK Thunder.

"I feel very excited about this coming season," said Johnson. "After speaking to Pete and hearing what he wanted to do - and having worked with him for the last three years - I knew Milton Keynes would be the right place for me."

Head Coach Pete Russell said: "Having worked with Luc for the last few years I felt this was a great move for him and for Lightning as a club to have him on board.

"He is a strong skater with a good skill level and has really good hockey sense."

DONS BLOG

Why should Dons bring Upson to the club?

BY JAMES REEVE
editor@mk-news.co.uk

THE latest rumours circulating around Milton Keynes Dons is that of interest in former England international defender Matthew Upson, who was released from Premier League side Leicester at the end of last season.

At the age of 36, should the Dons bring Upson to the club or should they look to secure other, younger players?

The biggest upside to bringing a player such as Upson to MK1 is obviously experience.

Being a formerEngland international, Upson has played at the very highest level of English football and represented his country at the 2010 World Cup.

He has played for a number of clubs in his career, including Arsenal, Birmingham City, West Ham United and Brighton & Hove Albion.

He has represented his country on 21 occasions, scoring twice in the process, and would be an excellent player to have around Joe Walsh.

Walsh is just 23 years old and could learn a lot from Upson. Outside of experience, Upson still has something to offer, having won Brighton's Player of the Year award at the end of the 2013/2014 campaign.

Upson would likely only be around for one season, but he would provide the club with depth at centre back and could be the ideal mentor for the club's younger players.

He would not likely push out the likes of Kyle McFazdean or even Antony Kay, but he would certainly be useful for a club trying to avoid relegation.

The Dons continue to build their team ahead of their Championship debut and optimism around the club is high, after the recent signing of Benavente and rumours of Upson signing.

Should Upson be signed, he will provide depth for arguably the team's second weakest area in terms of depth.

Regardless of it being Upson or not, the club needs more depth in the centre of defence as well as up-front.

Would you like to see Upson join the Dons? Or do you have other players in mind?

AMERICAN FOOTBALL

OUSE Valley Eagles were made to work hard to confirm themselves as SCF1 North Division Champions on Sunday.

Hosting the former premiership team Birmingham Bulls, the Eagles knew they were in for a tough day and the very heavy rain was far more suited to the visitors' running game.

The combination of quarterback Justin LaRoda and reciever Zach Woodage linked up for two passing touchdowns in the first half, along with the extra points and a field goal kicked by Ross Hubbard gave the Eagles a 17-6 half time lead.

As the rain came down further in the second half the Bulls running game wore down the hard working Eagles Defence.

Despite some sterling work from Defensive MVP Craig Asling and his colleagues, the Bulls forced two touchdowns over the line but Eagles QB LaRoda run in from four yards to secure the 24-19 win.

The result leaves Ouse Valley with a 6-3 record to win the SFC1 north title and give them a play-off position.They have a game away to Herts Cheetahs to finish the regular season before the play-offs in late August.

ATHLETICS

GREG Rutherford suffered a disappointing return to the Olympic Stadium after he only managed to finish third in the long jump at the Sainsbury's Anniversary Games.

On his last appearance he jumped 8.31m to take the Olympic gold medal but he fell shorter than that this time around. His biggest leap was 8.18m, which was 20 centimetres off the lead.

He also fouled three times as he struggled to find his rhythm but he has an immediate opportunity to rectify that performance as he prepares to jump in the Diamond League in Stockholm tomorrow.

He is also aiming to complete the 'quadruple' at the World Championships in Beijing next month as he looks to add that title to his Olympic, Commonwealth and European wins.

Meanwhile, Marshall Milton Keynes Athletics Club finished third in their final Youth Development League Premier Division match in Wolverhampton.

Three MMKAC athletes also competed in the annual British Masters Championships for competitiors 35 years and older. Bunt Scott won bronze in the hammer, throwing 33.28m.

In the M45 age group Paul Canning clocked 60.85 in his 400m heat and fourth in the shot with 8.85m. Steve Herring placed seventh in the 1500m.

GOLF

TOUR star Samantha Head has joined iPlayGolfUK in the iCentre on Howard Way, Newport Pagnell, to boost the indoor golf facility's coaching and custom-fitting team.

A familiar face on the Ladies European Tour for 20 years, the 42-year old Italian Open and South African Open champion also played for three seasons on the Japanese LPGA Tour.

Head, who most recently won the Ladies European Tour Qualifying School in 2007, retired five years ago from Tour life to start a family.

She is seen frequently in golf magazines and as a Sky Sports golf pundit, and currently contributes regular features and articles to Women & Golf magazine.

Head is the first female golf coach to join the team at iPlayGolfUK and she will team up with PGA professionals Greg Tilbury and Danny Poulter.

RUGBY WORLD CUP

More tickets made available for games

AN EXTRA 85,000 tickets have been made available for sale for the Rugby World Cup, including the matches at stadiummk in October.

The competition is on track to be the biggest Rugby World Cup to date following an increase in ticket capacity to 2.45 million for the third largest global sporting event.

Milton Keynes will host France v Canada on October 1, Samoa v Japan on October 3 and Fiji v Uruguay on October 6.

From today, 30,000 tickets have been made available for the knock-out stages, while tomorrow there will be 30,000 tickets available for Pool A and B matches from 12pm. These include the last two games at stadiummk, and from Friday 25,000 tickets are on sale from 12pm for Pool C and D matches, which includes France v Canada.

Managing Director of England Rugby 2015, Stephen Brown, said: "We have worked hard to ensure that we have as many seats for fans as possible.

"We continue to see strong demand for tickets."

The tickets on sale are a mixture of extra seats from the completion of venue configuration, handbacks from the Rugby World Cup Limited commercial programme, and tickets which have been registered for resale from fans who can no longer use their tickets.

CRICKET

Tompkin's terrific four wickets in four balls

MILTON Keynes bowler Brian Tompkins got four wickets in four balls on an amazing afternoon for him in the Four Counties League.

He ended with incredible figures of 7-9 as New Bradwell were dismissed for 80 and Milton Keynes won by nine wickets.

North Crawley beat Elstow by six wickets while New City (Milton Keynes) defeated Buckland and Aston Clinton by seven wickets.

Milton Keynes City lost to Biddenham by just ten runs.

Stony Stratford picked up a crucial win which lifted them off the bottom of the Northamptonshire Cricket League Premier.

Kamran Anwar's four-wicket haul helped dismiss fellow strugglers Horton House for 156.

Praveen Chandran scored 42 in reply as Stony got off to a good start but they suffered a mini-collapse.

However, in at number seven, Nick Allen was unbeaten on 40 as he scored four fours and a six to give Stony success.

In the Cherwell Cricket League, Great Brickhill beat Banbury Seconds by five wickets as Iqbal John secured a five wicket haul and Mark Nelson scored 71.

Wolverton Town lost to Cumnor by eight wickets as they were dismissed in the first innings for 109.

Surprise double podium as Horner defends Aussie

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

RED Bull have played down Mercedes' claims Daniel Ricciardo was responsible for the incident which forced Nico Rosberg to retire from an action-packed Hungarian Grand Prix.

Red Bull have struggled all season while Mercedes have been dominant, but the form book was turned on its head in Hungary on Sunday after Ferrari's Sebastian Vettel won the race, with Red Bull's Daniil Kvyat finishing second and Ricciardo coming home third.

With just five laps remaining, Ricciardo tried to pass Rosberg for second place but the two collided after the Australian tried to outbrake Rosberg. The incident left Ricciardo needing a new front wing and Rosberg picked up a puncture on his tyre. Ricciardo was still able to finish on the podium, though in third, while Rosberg had to settle for eighth – two places behind championship rival Lewis Hamilton.

But Mercedes' team boss Toto Wolff told Sky Sports he wasn't sure about Ricciardo's attempted passing manoeuvre.

"Ricciardo's incident with Nico was questionable to me," said Wolff.

"From what I saw on the cameras it was more a Ricciardo mistake."

However, FIA race director Charlie Whiting ruled there was no penalty and the result stood.

Red Bull team principal Christian Horner believed the collision was a 'racing incident' which is part and parcel of the sport, and he said he was delighted with the improvement the team had shown.

Double delight: Daniel Ricciardo and Daniil Kvyat and finished second and third in a scintillating Hungarian Grand Prix

"The strategy with Daniel really came into play after the final safety car, having run both the soft and hard tyre, which meant he had a new set of softs available for that final stint," said Horner.

"He put them to really good effect to pass Lewis, which set him up to have a go at Nico. Unfortunately their contact denied Daniel the opportunity of fighting for the race win, but it looked like a racing incident and certainly provided an entertaining drive."

Kvyat was delighted with finishing second on the podium.

"It was a fantastic turnaround in what was such an eventful race," said the Russian driver.

"But the car was really competitive during the last stint and we were able to finish very strongly.

"All the team deserves this double-podium."

He also dedicated his second-place to Jules Bianchi, the Formula One driver who died on July 17 after suffering severe head injuries during an accident at the Japanese Grand Prix last season.

Hall's promotion antics last season prompts Robbo to bring him back

WINGER Rob Hall has signed a season-long loan deal with Dons after impressing in their League One promotion bid last season.

Hall arrived on loan in March and impressed during that spell which included a hat-trick in the 6-1 win over Leyton Orient, prompting manager Karl Robinson to move for the 21-year-old ahead of the 2015/16 campaign.

"It was an easy decision," Hall, who also spent time on loan at stadiummk during the 2011-12 campaign, told MK Dons PlayerHD.

"I'm just happy I'm back here and I can't wait to get going again.

"Coming here last season revitalised my whole career. I got on really well with the gaffer and the staff and the lads were great, too.

"This was an opportunity I couldn't turn down."

Dons boss Robinson added: "It was clear for all to see at the back end of last season what he is capable of.

"He's an exciting young English talent and he'll add another dimension to our attack."
